

ICP Lab Assignment 6 (A)

Q1. Write a C program to find the largest and smallest element of an array A. Take size of the array from user.

Q2. Write a C program to take 10 values from the user and arrange them in an ascending order without using second array.

Q3. Write a C program to delete all the duplicate elements from the array.

Q4. Write a C program to take a Character array from the user of size m and replace every even no position character with the first character and the odd position character with the last character.